

In the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, Frontline Families are providing events designed to meet the needs of families of disabled children and adults who have a range of support needs. See all events on our webpage.

bit.ly/FLFweb

Or scan QR code →

Legal Remedies for autistic people and/or people with Learning Disabilities within in-patient services

Learn what you need to know about legal issues, the routes of challenge and what's helpful for a solicitor to know when you need to work with one.

In this session, Kirsty from Irwin Mitchell will be sharing feedback on advocacy from legal consultants on the ground, and some legal examples, covering issues such as Court of Protection, Mental Health tribunals and Judicial Review for Assessment and Treatment Unit challenges.

Monday 25th April 2022
11am to 1pm

Join us on Zoom for an informative session with Kirsty Stuart - Associate Solicitor
from Irwin Mitchell LLP

for info email: pippa@bringingustogether.org.uk

Frontline Families is a partnership of organisations who work with families of disabled children and adults who have a range of support needs.

